

The Pennsylvania Bar Association Administrative Law Section Presents

Commonwealth Court Practicum: Practice, Procedures and Perspectives

Monday, May 6, 2024 | 1:15 p.m. – 4:45 p.m.

Pennsylvania Judicial Center

601 Commonwealth Ave. Harrisburg, PA 17120

Registration deadline: April 22, 2024

The Administrative Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, in cooperation with the Commonwealth Court Historical Society, is pleased to announce the 2024 Commonwealth Court Practicum. Join fellow practitioners in-person at the Pennsylvania Judicial Center to learn from distinguished jurists and key court staff as you earn up to three CLE credits. Two 1.5 hour sessions will be featured focusing on The Commonwealth Court as a Trial Court and The Commonwealth Court as an Appellate Court.

Welcome remarks by President Judge Cohn Jubelirer. Our all-star cast of speakers includes Judge Patricia A. McCullough, Judge Anne E. Covey, Judge Michael H. Wojcik, Judge Christine Fizzano Cannon, Judge Lori A. Dumas, Judge Stacy Wallace, key court staff and veteran practitioners.

Conclude the day by enjoying an afternoon reception with judges, court staff and colleagues immediately following the program (4:45 p.m. – 5:45 p.m.)

This program will also be recorded to attend as a PBI webcast at a future time.

Please note: In-person attendance is limited.

Click here to register to attend in person.

PBA section member$199

PBA non-section member$224*

(*$25 of this fee covers section dues for the remainder of 2024)

Non-PBA member$249

3 CLE credits

Grow. Connect. Succeed.

pabar.org | LinkedIn Pennsylvania Bar Association | Facebook /PaBarAssn | Phone 800.932.0311